FIRST STEPS EMERGENCY TEAM

This past week has shown that when First Steps is cancelled because of family illness amongst the organisers it is very much missed by the local community. It has been suggested that an ‘emergency team’ might be appropriate in such circumstances to put out the toys, open the doors and have a brew. It would purely be a play session without the need to take money, tell the usual story or finish with singing. If you would be prepared to help out at short notice on these rare occasions please speak to Jess, Liz or Dave in the office. Please note that the Thursday morning session will cease after 9th February.
